

Sinclair
Broadcasting's plan
to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry smear
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation
- and seems to go
against the principal of those
owning airwaves
SERVING THE PUBLIC
INTEREST.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public
interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
